THE DAY MY GRANDPARENT TOOK OVER SCHOOL!

Today was Grandparents Day, and I couldn't wait for _____ [1]
to visit my school!

When my grandparent walked into our classroom, they looked around and shouted, "_____ [2]!"

"School sure has changed! It has been _____ [3] years since I was a kid in school!"

I gave my grandparent a _____ [4] hug and showed them around the classroom.

"Things really ARE different," my grandparent said. "We definitely didn't have _____ [5] in our classroom!"

Soon it was time for _____ [6]. Our teacher asked my grandparent to tell us something about school when they were young.

"Back in my day," my grandparent said, "every student needed a _____ [7]!"
Everyone looked a little confused.

Then it was my turn to show my grandparent what I've been learning.
I impressed the whole class by _____ [8].

My grandparent was so proud that they announced,
"That deserves _____ [9] gold stars!"

Next came recess. My grandparent and I decided to _____ [10] together.
We were having so much fun that everyone on the playground started shouting:
"_____ [11]!"

After all that excitement, we were hungry. Luckily, it was time for lunch with the grandparents!

We sat together and ate _____ [12] while my grandparent told me stories about what lunchtime was like when they were my age.

Before we knew it, our _____ [13] Grandparents Day was over.
But I had one more surprise...

I GOT TO RIDE HOME WITH MY GRANDPARENT!

We climbed into their _____ [14] and headed toward _____ [15].
As we pulled away from school, my grandparent smiled and said,
"This was the most _____ [16] school day I've had in a LONG time!"
And after _____ [3] years, I'd say they were definitely due for another one!
