

Tractor Brand Crossword

Use the tractor colors and history clues to solve the puzzle.
Write multi-word brand names without spaces or hyphens.

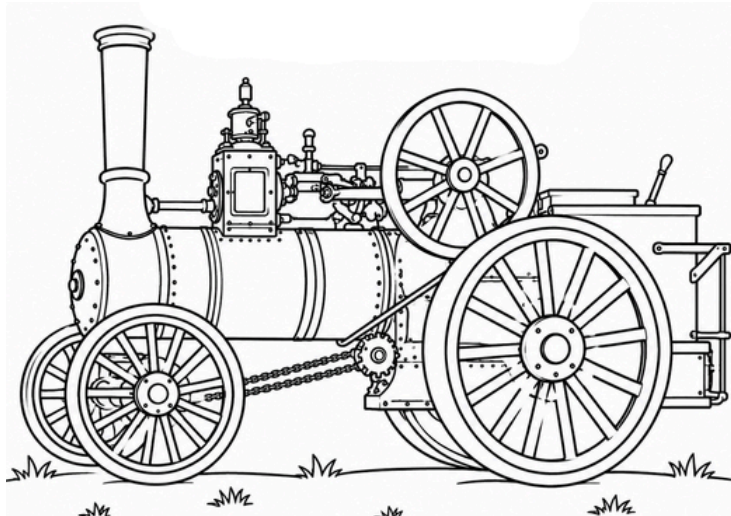

Across

2. My tractors are known for being red. My company was formed after Massey-Harris and Harry Ferguson's company joined together. Who am I?
4. Look for my famous orange tractors! I began painting tractors Persian Orange in 1929. Who am I?
5. I was a famous red row-crop tractor made by International Harvester. I helped farmers cultivate crops planted in rows. What name am I?
8. I made famous red tractors, including Farmall tractors. In 1985, my tractor business joined with Case to create a new brand. Who am I?
9. Henry Ford created me, and in 1917 I became one of the first tractors to be mass-produced on a large scale. What tractor brand am I?
10. Some of my early tractors were gray, while later tractors carrying my name became famous for blue and light-gray coloring. What brand am I?

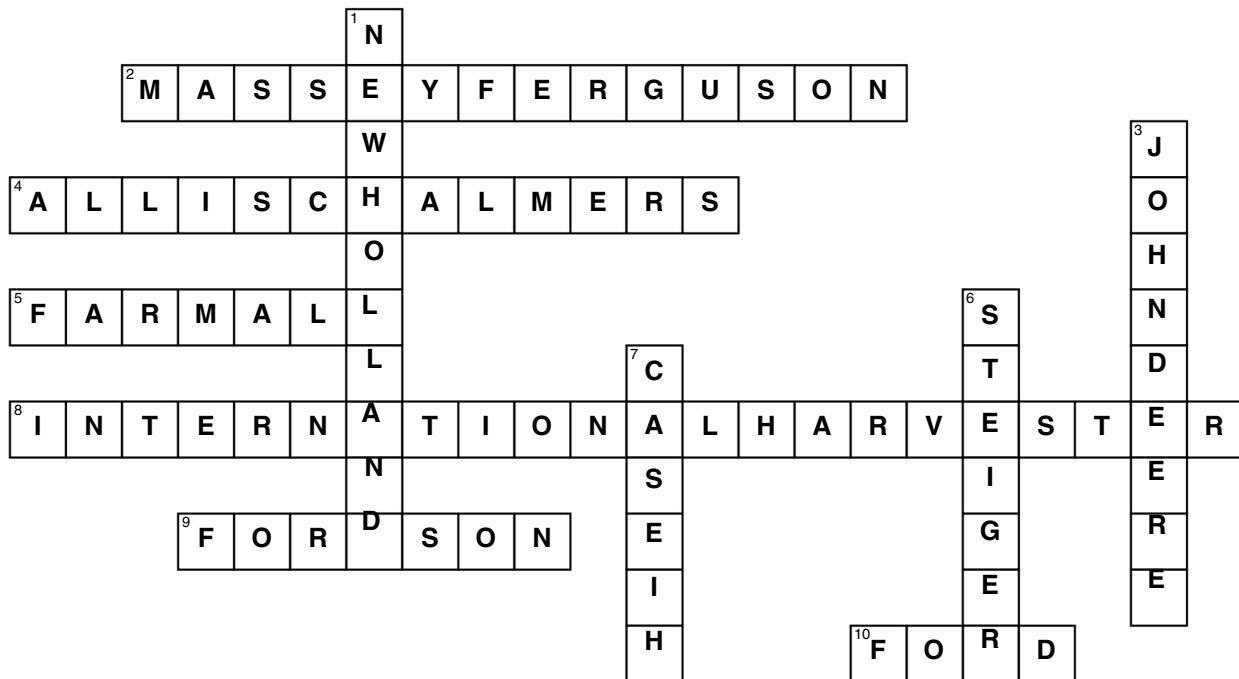

Down

1. My tractors are known for their bright blue color. My family tree includes Ford tractors, and today I make tractors, combines, and hay equipment. Who am I?
3. My tractors are famous for being green and yellow. I entered the tractor business in 1918 after buying the company that made the Waterloo Boy. Who am I?
6. I became famous for huge green, high-horsepower tractors. After joining Case IH, tractors carrying my name eventually became red. Who am I?
7. My tractors are red. I was formed in 1985 when the tractor businesses of Case and International Harvester came together. Who am I?

Tractor Brand Crossword

Answer Key

Answers

1. NewHolland (Down)
2. Massey Ferguson (Across)
3. John Deere (Down)
4. Allis-Chalmers (Across)
5. Farmall (Across)
6. Steiger (Down)
7. Case IH (Down)
8. International Harvester (Across)
9. Fordson (Across)
10. Ford (Across)

